

Name _____

Work like a scientist as you make predictions, observe, measure, analyze, record and compare your findings about real pumpkins in this log!

Pumpkin Parts

Color the pumpkin and label its parts using these words: blossom end, stem, tendril, ribs, leaf

Background Information

Scientists research and find out information about what they want to study before they start any experiments or observations.

The word pumpkin comes from the Greek word pepou, which means

Pumpkins are _____ fruits/vegetables

Pumpkins grow on the ground on _____ long

It takes about _____ for a pumpkin to grow from a seed.

Most pumpkins weigh between _____ and _____ pounds. The largest pumpkin weighed _____ pounds.

Pumpkins grow all over the world except in _____